

Dear FCC,

This letter is in response to the superbowl performance last night. I think there should be swift punishment of the people involved. This is the most televised event of the year and this does not speak well of an American event. I does not speak well to our children. I hope this opens some doors for further restriction of television in general. It has come a long way in the last few years (Ways in which aren't very gratifying).